

Position Title: Bank of America Merrill Lynch Visiting Faculty Chair in International Finance, 2022-2023

Organization: Schwarzman College at Tsinghua University, Beijing, China

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

Designed to inspire the next generation of global leaders, the Schwarzman Scholars program is the most significant of its kind since the Rhodes Trust was founded in 1902. With nearly $600 million raised so far, it is also the single largest philanthropic effort ever undertaken in China by largely international donors.

The 100-200 scholars chosen annually for this highly selective program work towards a one-year Master's Degree in Global Affairs at Tsinghua University in Beijing — one of China's most prestigious universities. As individuals who want to have a positive impact on the world, Schwarzman Scholars are selected based on their academic credentials, extracurricular interests, and leadership potential.

POSITION SUMMARY

Schwarzman College at Tsinghua University is recruiting for the Bank of America Merrill Lynch Visiting Faculty Chair in International Finance. This full-time position will be given to one individual with a term of one semester to two years.

Successful applicants will be fairly compensated for teaching and other contributions based on their length of residence at the College. A modest amount of research funding will be included. A faculty apartment at Schwarzman College at Tsinghua University will be provided during the period of residence.

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES

The Chair shall work full-time at Tsinghua University and teach at Schwarzman College, and shall have no other full-time obligations outside of Tsinghua University.

We are seeking expert scholars in contemporary global issues related to international finance, business, and economics. We are seeking excellent teachers and scholars with an interdisciplinary focus who are able to take a leave of absence from their current academic positions for at least one semester.

The Visiting Chair will be expected to teach two eight-week module courses, or one eight-week module course plus an additional equivalent activity, in the program. The Visiting Chair may be asked to speak at one or more appropriate and mutually convenient company or college events.

In addition to teaching up to two courses per academic semester, the Chair shall also be responsible for advising students on Capstone projects and writing, and actively participating in academic and community activities of Schwarzman College.

SKILLS, EXPERIENCE, AND QUALIFICATIONS

The Bank of America Merrill Lynch Visiting Faculty Chair in International Finance should have expertise in global business and trade, including the following content areas: global trade and global trading rules, trade relations and regional trading bodies, and international finance. The Chair should also have a background in issues related to global economic inequality.

The following qualifications and credentials will be considered in appointing the Chair:

- 1. Prominent scholar and recognized expert with a strong record of teaching, research, and publications at the associate or full professor level (Distinguished practitioners with relevant expertise will also be considered);
- 2. For candidates who are Chinese citizens currently based in China, significant time spent outside of China, such as studying and working;
- 3. Fluency in English (for purposes of teaching, research, and communications);
- 4. A doctoral degree in business, economics, public policy, political economy, international relations, or other relevant fields. International experience and knowledge, as well as experience working in or on China, are helpful. Educational background in the United States and/or Europe is preferred.
